Efactor

1) Go to browser and search Efactor.tech.

2) Enter the details in login page.

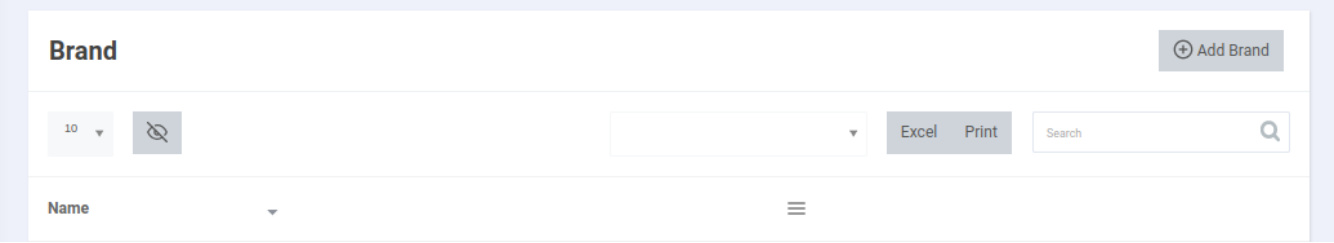

- enter user name
- enter password
- click on sign in button

3) To add new API click on ADD Brand.

4) Click on add brand on top right.

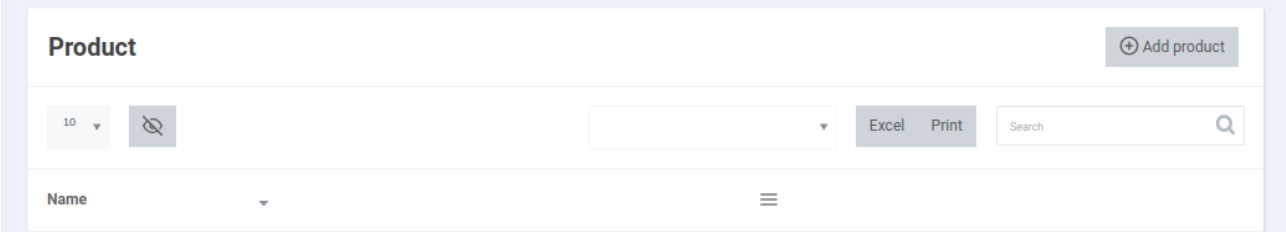

5) Enter the brand name & click on save.

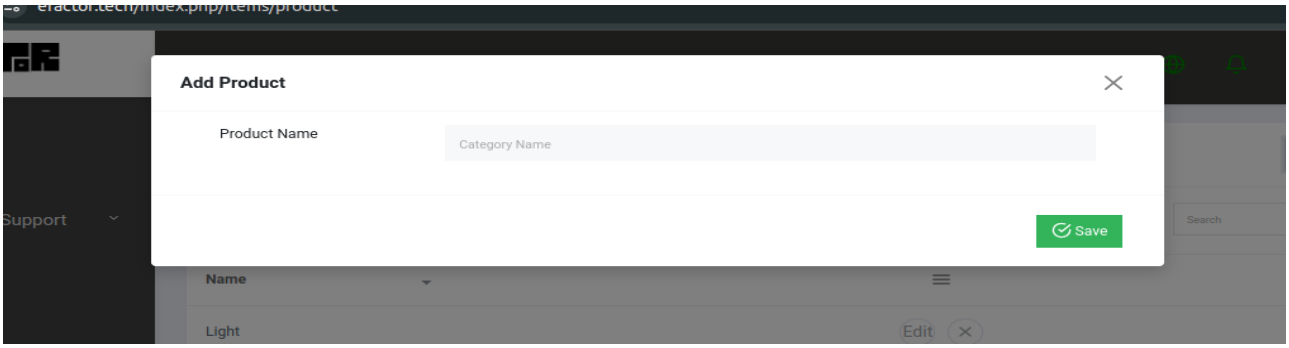

6) Go back to homepage and Click on Add Product.

7) Click on Add Product on top right.

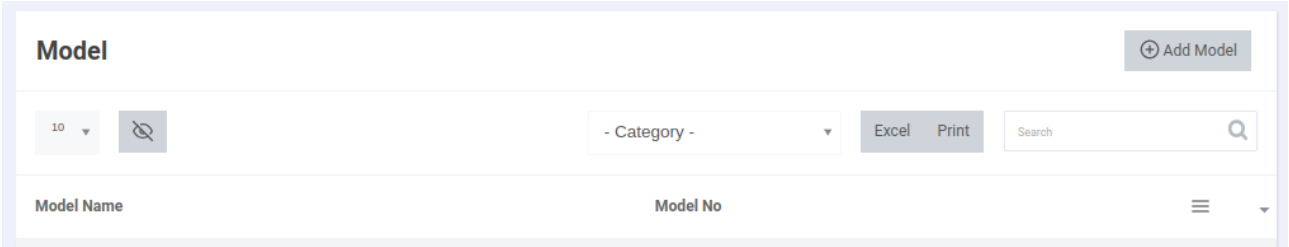

8) Enter the product name and click on save.

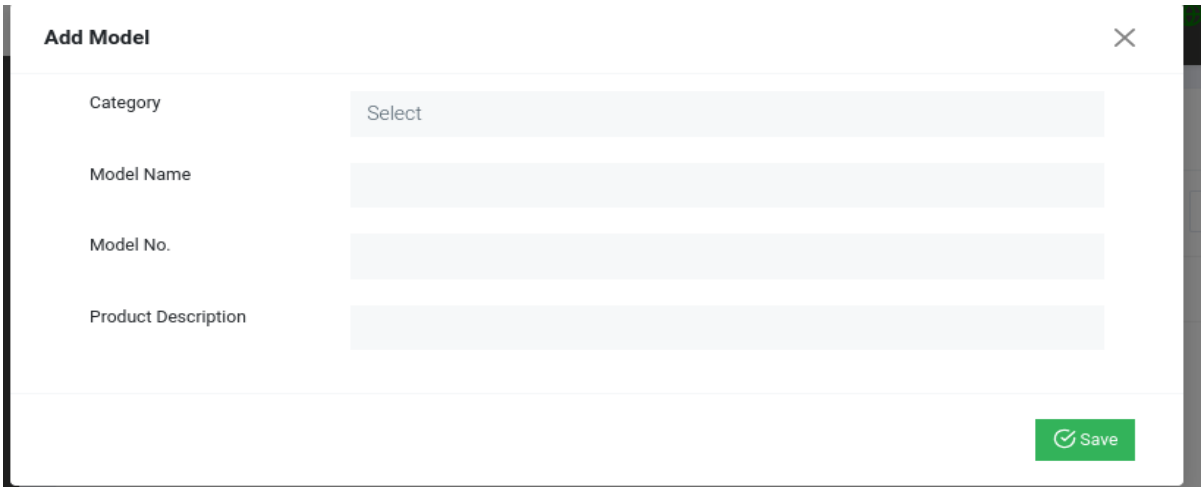

9) Go back to homepage and Click on Add Brand.

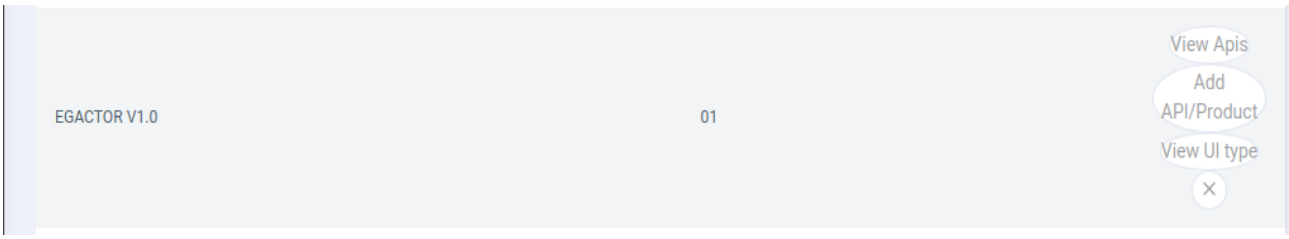

10) click on Add Model on the top right.

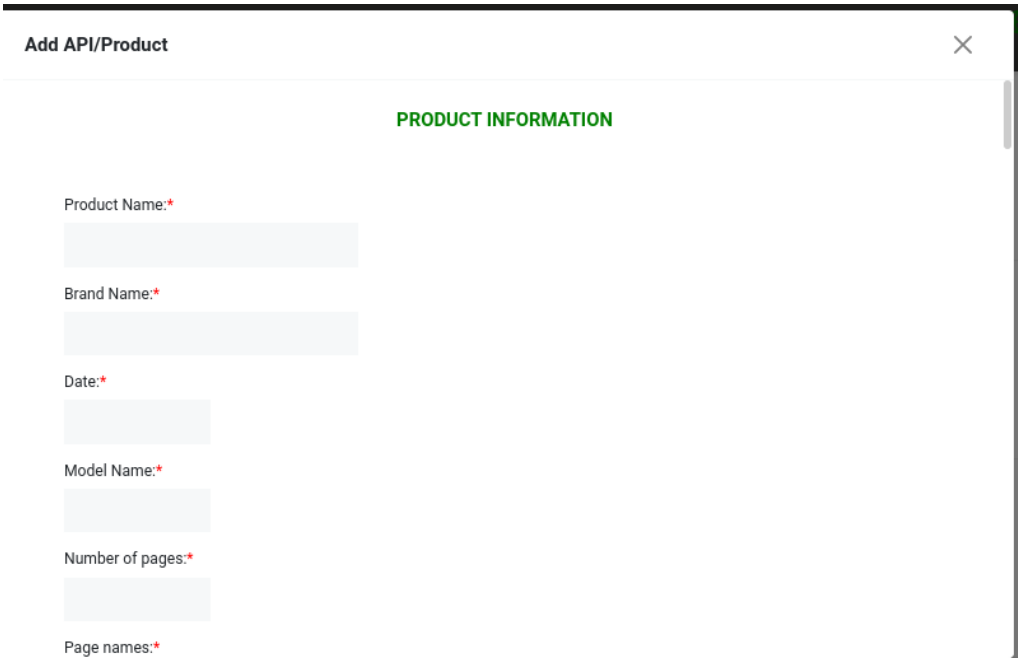

11) Enter the details manually and click on the save button.

12) Click on add API/ Product.

13) Enter the Product Information.

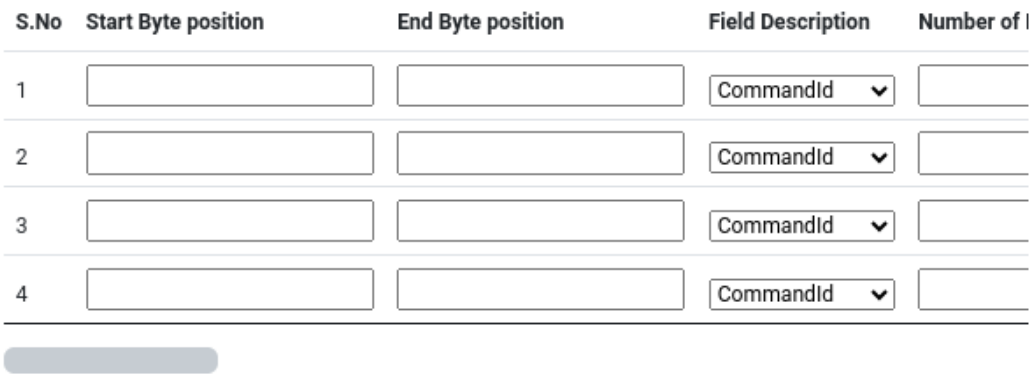

14) Enter command frame details

* The frame size in byte will be considered as byte size.

* As per the given number in frame size in byte, a table is generated.

* enter the start byte and end byte positions.

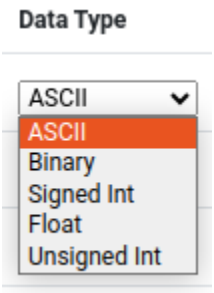

* In Field Description click on the drop down button to get more descriptions.

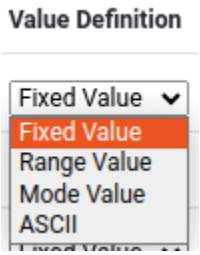

* Enter the no.of bytes taken at start and end positions of the byte and the bit size .

* Select the data type :

* Select the value defination :

* Enter the Display minimum value and maximum value as per the device.
  Ex : -
  - For a fan the min value is off and the max is on.
  - For a slider the min value is 1 and the max dependes as per the device.

Display Value (Min)	Display Value (Max)

* Enter the min and max values in hexa decimal form.

Value in Hex (Min)	Value in Hex (Max)

* Select the UI(user interface) type according to the device :

Toggle Switch ----------

slider ----------

Brightness Slider------

CCT Slider ----------

Saturation Slider -----

Hue Slider ----------

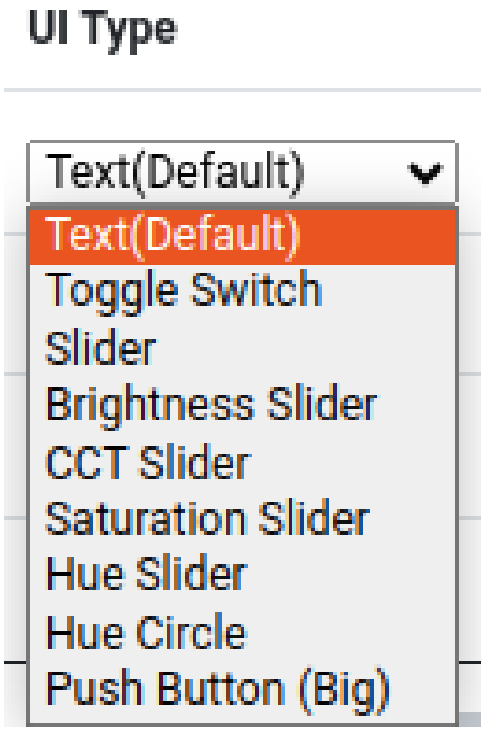

Hue Circle ----------

Push Button ----------

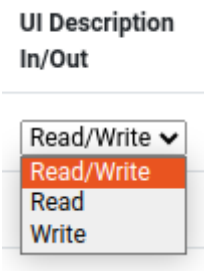

* Enter UI ID and UI page numbers :

UI ID	UI Page No

* Select the UI description in the drop down :

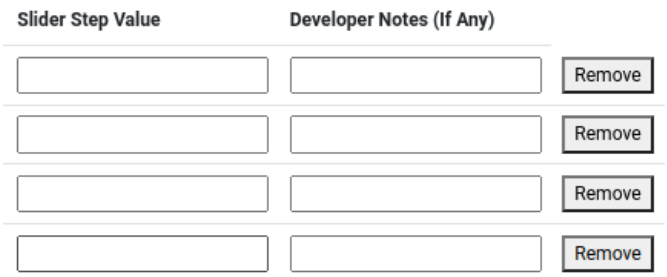

* Enter the Slider step value :

* Enter the developer notes :

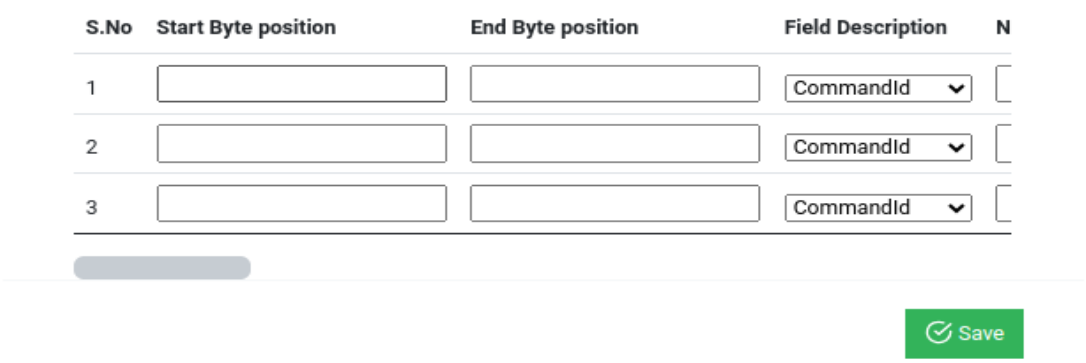

* To remove any cell use remove button :

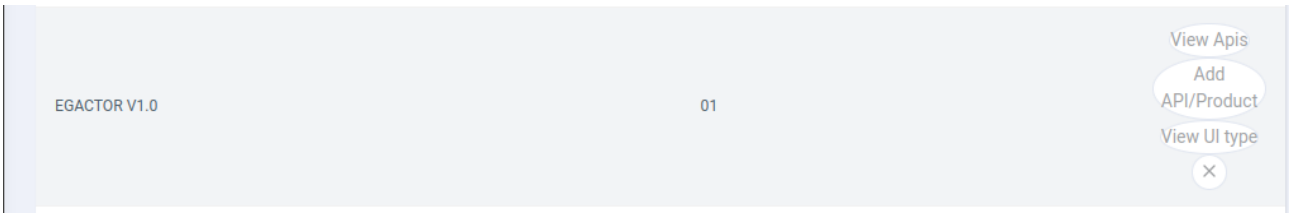

15) enter the details of product in Response Frame & Error Frame same as Command Frame.

16) Click on save button to save the given data.

17) To view the saved model click on View APIs.

* Here we can see the saved models.

Brand Name	Brand logo	product name	model name	product description	Number of pages	Date	itemid	filename	apidate	Parameter Name	Command Dataflow	Comma framesi
FFFF		FAN1	V 1.3	NULL	1	04/04/2024	28			LED	app/server	4
FFF		FAN1	V 1.2	NULL	1	04/04/2024	28			DIRECTION	app/server	4