1) Click on add API/ Product.

2) Enter the Product Information.

 The model name should be same for different parameters of a single product.

3) Then enter the command frame details

* With the value of frame size in bytes a table is generated.

S.No	Start Byte position	End Byte position	Field Description
1	1	1	CommandId
2	2	2	Function Code
3	3	3	Data
4	4	4	Terminator

* Enter the byte start position and end position and select a field description.
* Enter the no.of bytes and Bit size.

* Select the data type and Value defination.

* Enter the Display minimun value & Display maximam value.

* Enter the values in Hexa decimal form.

 Select the UI type,UI description in/out.*
 Enter UI ID & UI Page no.*

 Enter slider step value & developer notes.*
 To remove any cell use remove button.*

4) Follow the same procedure for Response frame & Error frame.
5) Click on save button to save the given data.

6) To view the saved model click on View APIs.

* Here we can see the saved models.

Brand Name	Brand logo	product name	model name	product description	Number of pages	Date	itemid	filename	apidate	Parameter Name	Command Dataflow	Comma framesi
FFFF		FAN1	V 1.3	NULL	1	04/04/2024	28			LED	app/server	4
FFF		FAN1	V 1.2	NULL	1	04/04/2024	28			DIRECTION	app/server	4